

As a citizen of the U.S. and a resident in Indiana, I would strongly encourage you not implement any proposal that would weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. As a mother of 7, we treasure our limited time together, especially around dinner. Please help to strengthen families around the nation by supporting Indiana's law which strictly limits telemarketers' intrusions into the home.

Sincerely,

Kim E. Bertsch